A photograph of a protest sign. The sign is made of cardboard and has three lines of text. The first line says 'FIGHT TODAY' in bold, black, block letters. The second line says 'FOR A BETTER' in black, block letters, with 'BETTER' written in red, cursive script. The third line says 'TOMORROW' in bold, black, block letters. The sign is held up by a person, and the background is blurred, showing other people and what appears to be a banner with the word 'Solidarity' partially visible.
